

TAXES FOR BOOKS NOT BOMBS!

For wars fed on fictions attempting to hide the hypocrisy, ignorance and greed that is their true basis, the White House is sacrificing the real wealth of our country—its young men and women—on the battlefield and in our collapsing school systems. Many Berkeley High School teachers have received pink slips within the past few weeks, decimating its small school and other successful programs as Berkeley schools are being forced to cut 12 million dollars from their budget. Don't betray our children and the teachers who have worked so hard to build hope in our schools and understanding of other peoples that can prevent future wars. We urge you not to support the White House's dangerous unilateral "preemptive" wars against the world and the increased terror and unrest that will be their legacy by:

1. Sending tax money instead to the non-profit Berkeley High School Development Group;
2. Working to stop the war in Iraq, letting Iraqis determine their future, repairing the harm done through the United Nations and bringing our troops home out of harm's way; and
3. Joining friends, neighbors and strangers for a regime change at home that will bring true security through a world community based upon just and equitable laws, understanding and cooperation.
